United States Attorney Paul J. McNulty announced today that James P. Gillis, an Assistant United States Attorney in the Eastern District of Virginia, will lead the efforts of his office in connection with the Justice Department's Election Day Program for the upcoming November 8, 2005, general elections. AUSA James P. Gillis has been appointed to serve as the District Election Officer for the Eastern District of Virginia and in that capacity is responsible for overseeing the District's handling of complaints of election fraud and voting rights abuses in consultation with Justice Department Headquarters.

Under Attorney General Gonzales, the U.S. Department of Justice has continued its Department-wide Ballot Access and Voting Integrity Initiative. The goals of this Initiative are to increase the Department's ability to deter election fraud and discrimination at the polls and to prosecute these offenses whenever and wherever they occur - to make voting easier and cheating harder. Both goals are equally important. It is imperative that in pursuing voter integrity, ballot access is not in any way diminished or harmed. The Department's long-standing Election Day Program furthers the goals of the Initiative. The Program also is intended to ensure public confidence in the integrity of the election process by providing local points of contact within the Department where the public can report possible election fraud and voting rights violations while the polls are open on election day. The franchise is the cornerstone of American democracy. We all must ensure that those who are entitled to the franchise exercise it, while those who seek to corrupt it are brought to justice.

In order to respond to complaints of election fraud or voting rights abuses on November 8, 2005, and to ensure that such complaints are directed to the appropriate authorities, United States Attorney Paul J. McNulty stated that Assistant United States Attorney James P. Gillis, along with Assistant United States Attorney Debra Prillaman in Richmond and Assistant United States Attorney Alan M. Salsbury in Norfolk, will be on duty in this District while the polls are open. They can be reached by the public at the following telephone numbers: 703-299-3700 (Northern Virginia), 804-819-5400 (Richmond) and 757-441-6331 (Norfolk).

The FBI will also have special agents available in each field office and resident agency in this District to receive allegations of election fraud and other election abuses. The FBI can be reached by the public at 202-278-2000.

Complaints about ballot access problems or discrimination can be made directly to the Civil Rights Division's Voting Section in Washington at 1-800-253-3931 or 202-307-2767.
